ADMITS HE WAS "JUST LOST"

Joke on Veteran Hack Driver Was Altogether Too Good a One to Be Kept.

For 15 years George L. King has driven the Nashville-Helmsburg hack line, and is known as the Abe Martin driver by every person who has visited Nashville. He has met both morning and afternoon trains at Helmsburg almost every day, and has every stone and bad place in the road definitely in his mind.

Recently, so friends of Mr. King say, he and a handful of passengers were lost within a half mile of Nashville, and he was two hours late when he arrived in town. One of the passengers told the story on the driver after he had found out that Mr. King was not going to tell why he was late.

When near town he drove across Owl creek to let one of the passengers out, and instead of turning around he turned the horses only half way, and then drove into a 40-acre cornfield. One of the women passengers, hearing the cornstalks popping, asked Mr. King when they would get back on the road. He did not answer, but kept driving around and around in the cornfield. After a few minutes she asked him where they were. He replied, "be d—n if I know." The passengers, all strangers, became alarmed and, after calling for help, a young farmer appeared and showed the driver how to get out of the cornfield and on the pike.

After the story had become known Mr. King said that he had two dash lanterns on the back and was just lost.—Indianapolis News.

ADDS TO WEALTH OF ITALY

New Variety of Wheat, Known as Strampelli, Has Proved Really Wonderful Success.

A new wheat, specially adapted to the conditions prevailing in the grain-raising districts of Italy, has just been developed by many years of careful selection by Prof. Nazareno Strampelli, director of the experiment station at Bielli, to whom the Academy of the Lincei has awarded for it the prize of the Sanzio foundation, given only to those who discover something of real and great benefit to the human race.

The new grain has been named Carlotta Strampelli, after the devoted wife who helped materially in the work of selection. Signora Strampelli is a Roman patrician and a great-granddaughter of Lucien Bonaparte, Napoleon's elder brother.

Last year Carlotta Strampelli wheat was sown upon 47,000 acres of ground and yielded an average of 87 bushels to the acre—about ten bushels more than such land had yielded hitherto.

On the plains of Lombardy, Molise and Puglia are about 940,000 acres suitable for the new wheat. If the entire product of last year were sown this year, the wheat crop of Italy would be increased by a quantity about equivalent to that imported annually before the war; in other words, it would make Italy independent of the rest of the world for wheat.

AMUSEMENTS

ELAINE HAMMERSTEIN AT THE BUTLER TONIGHT.

Elaine Hammerstein, the charming film star, has the leading role in "Greater Than Flame," which will be shown at the Butler tonight. This drama of life gives this popular star a chance to display her superb qualities and histrionic ability, more perhaps than any other production in which she has appeared. The story is pleasing, interesting, and in its screen adaptation every dramatic situation has been developed to advantage. There are at times bits of humor to which Elaine Hammerstein responds charmingly, and in the more serious moments she portrays the character with much sincerity. She is cast as a talented village girl who seeks to further her ability to sing by going to the Mecca of all masters—New York City. Her adventures in realizing her ambition provides the plot. How she meets with all types and classes and how she decides to work out her own salvation and yet win success, make this photo-drama one of unusual interest. Added to the feature will be the latest Pathe News.

Tomorrow, Miss Ferguson, in "The Avalanche" Coming Monday, the Great Houdini, in "The Grim Game" Do not miss it. It's one of the good ones.

W. D. Evans, Arthur Brooke, Ed. Prout and Stephen M. Johns came through in 14 1/2 hours, arriving here at 7:30 last evening.
